THE REVIEWING PROCESS

The Report of Appreciation of the Article will have the following format and will comprise the following criteria of evaluation of the article:

REPORT OF APPRECIATION OF THE ARTICLE SENT FOR PUBLICATION IN THE STUDII JURIDICE JOURNAL
THE TITLE OF THE ARTICLE
THE NAME OF THE AUTHOR	In orbi
Evaluation criteria
1. Does the subject of the article correspond to the theme of the Journal?	NO		YES
2. The objectives of the article are clearly defined	NO		YES
3. The use of the bibliographic references is correct	NO		YES
4. The citations used by the author are adequate	NO		YES
5. The conclusions of the article reflect the object of the article	NO		YES
6. The logic support of the scientific arguments	NO		YES
7. The originality of the paper has the following level:	HIGH
	MEDIUM
	LOW
8. The article contributes to the scientific development	NO		YES
9. The Abstract of the article corresponds to the demands	NO		YES
10. Proposal for the publication of the article	Without observations or recommendations
	With observations
	With recommendations
	Does not propose the publication of the article
Observations that must be taken into consideration by the author for the publication of the article

Recommendations whose inclusion in the text by the author does not impede the publication of the article
THE DATE OF SETTING UP THE PRESENT REPORT
THE NAME OF THE REVIEWER	In orbi
THE FINAL OPINION OF THE EDITOR OF THE JOURNAL	THE ACCEPTANCE OF THE TEXT
	THE REFUSAL OF THE TEXT

The final opinion is being sent to the author along with the Report of Appreciation of the Article sent for publication.

According to the previsions of Law no. 8/1996 concerning copyright and related rights, with the subsequent modifications, the acceptance by the Journal of the materials sent for publication, equates to the valid conclusion of the contract of editing. Under this contract, the author assigns on exclusive basis the reproduction and propagation rights over his work.

The Journal reserves the following rights as regards to the materials accepted for publication:

- Suggesting the change of their titles, so that they reflect the content and the objectives of the texts;
- Suggesting rephrasing, styling, correction of some confusing, unclear, incomplete formulations.

The decision concerning the acceptance for publication or the refusal for publication will be communicated to the author within 45 days of the moment of receiving the article.

Once sent to the Journal, the materials cannot make the object of an offer to other publications but in case of refusal of their publication.

We kindly ask our collaborators to respect the law concerning copyright and to avoid any form of plagiarism.

The Journal does not assume any responsibility in case of plagiarism, this being assumed entirely by the author, both from a legal point of view (civil, contravention, criminal, etc.) and from a deontological point of view.